Los Angeles Pierce College

The San Fernando Valley Goes to College: Pierce College Hosts Annual College Fair

Pierce College (LAPC), in collaboration with Mission and Valley colleges, recently hosted this year's San Fernando Valley College Fair, sponsored by the LAUSD.

Over 20 universities were present on campus, with thousands of high school students from local schools exploring higher education options, including universities, trade schools, and community colleges.

A variety of workshops were held throughout the day, catering to both parents and students. These sessions included guidance on financial aid, the application process, and insights into life at larger universities. In true community spirit, Pierce College provided hot dogs and hamburgers for students, parents, and staff.

It was a vibrant event, with eager future college students gaining valuable information for their academic journeys ahead.

West Los Angeles College

In the month of September, West Los Angeles College (WLAC) hosted 600 high school seniors for the 2024 Transfer Fair. The students were from high schools all around the Los Angeles westside area, who had the opportunity to meet with representatives and recruiters from all of the Cal States, UC's, and private universities.

Community College Bureau personnel employed community policing principles to encourage interactive partnerships between law enforcement personnel, and the people they serve. They provided a safe environment for all who visited by developing connections within the West Los Angeles College community.
