East Los Angeles College

On May 7, 2025, the Mental Evaluation Team, led by Deputy Mangahis, collaborated with East Los Angeles Community College, the Student Health Center (SCH), and the Associated Student Union (ASU) to host a booth for Mental Health Awareness Month.

This event provided an opportunity for the community to come together and raise awareness about mental health, aiming to combat the negative stigma associated with it. Promoting this awareness is essential in encouraging individuals to seek the help they need. Deputy Mangahis offered valuable information about available services and resources to support mental health and wellness.

Los Angeles City College

In the month of May, deputies and security officers at Los Angeles City College were busy assisting with safety and community events on campus.

This month, we supported the Asian American and Pacific Islander Cultural Day in the Student Union, which featured live music, lei-making, and Hawaiian food. On May 16, 2025, we also actively engaged with our community during Pride Day, ensuring that everyone could enjoy the celebration in a safe and welcoming atmosphere.

Our personnel wished to show the college community that the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department is committed to ensuring the safety of students, staff, and the entire campus community.

Los Angeles Pierce College

On May 14, 2025, Community College Bureau (CCS) personnel hosted a “Coffee With a Cop Event” at Los Angeles Pierce College (LAPC).

We had a fantastic turnout for the event with dozens of students and staff stopping by to enjoy coffee, pastries, and engaging conversations. Topics discussed ranged from department policies to how to apply and join the Sheriff’s Department.

CCS LAPC personnel are committed to being transparent and accessible, while strengthening our presence at Pierce College.

A special thank you to Captain Renteria and Lieutenant Gonzalez for joining us on campus, answering questions, and demonstrating their continued support for the Pierce College community.

Los Angeles Southwest College

Los Angeles Southwest College (LASC) hosted the annual the Los Angeles Community College Black Graduation to honor and recognize black students from all nine colleges in the district. This year, over 500 graduates attended the ceremony, which took place inside the LASC Lakin Gym. Both the staff and graduates wore African attire to celebrate their rich cultural heritage. At the conclusion of the ceremony, a delicious soul food dinner was provided for everyone in attendance. LASC continues to strive to be the premier higher education institution for the community.

West Los Angeles College

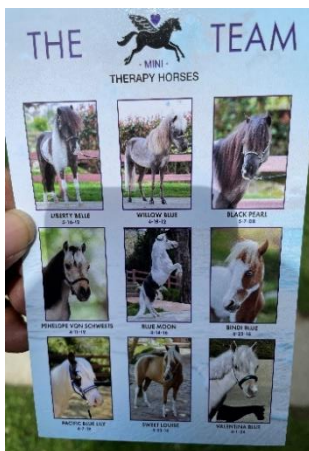

The school semester is coming to an end for the students, staff, and faculty at West Los Angeles College (WLAC). As students prepare for their final exams, some are scheduling their classes for the summer or fall semesters, while others are getting ready for graduation.

Staff and faculty are preparing to celebrate the graduating students who have worked diligently to achieve their college goals. In May, several events took place where Community College Bureau personnel ensured a safe environment for everyone involved. Featured below is a picture of the Fine Arts building, which recently upgraded its fire alarm system. Community College Bureau personnel provided 24-hour monitoring for two weeks during this period. Additionally, WLAC hosted a career fair, connecting students with employers offering summer jobs and internship opportunities.

Students, staff, and faculty enjoyed a brief break with several mini therapy horses. As finals approached, the WLAC Health and Wellness Center, along with the ASO, organized Wellness Wednesdays to provide students a space to relax and manage stress.
