June Update...

The following is a summary of the training activities conducted by the Training and Support Unit for the month of June:

- Met with West Los Angeles College President Doctor Limbaugh to discuss safety and security details for the June 10, 2025, graduation.
- Met with Los Angeles Valley College Vice President Sarah Song to discuss Active Shooter and Building Marshal training (Building Marshal training prepares individuals to assist with building evacuations and emergency responses within a specific building or area).
- Authored the Event Action Plan for the upcoming Active Threat training to be conducted at the Los Angeles Valley College campus.
- Authored curriculum with an emphasis on de-escalation after contacting individuals in crisis. The curriculum was disseminated to all deputy sheriffs and security officers.
- Met with Safety and Emergency Preparedness Manager Adam Saurin and personnel from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Emergency Operations Bureau to create a tabletop exercises to train LACCD administrators. The training exercises include:
 - Critical incident management
 - Establishing a command post
 - Establishing ICC's on campuses
- Conducted de-escalation training with Security Officers from LAPC, LAVC, and LAMC.

East Los Angeles College

In the month of June, East Los Angeles College (ELAC) hosted multiple graduation ceremonies for several Unified School Districts. These events took place at Weingart Stadium and Ingalls Auditorium. ELAC also held its own graduation ceremony on June 10, 2025.

To enhance safety and security during the graduation season, Community College Bureau deputies and security officers patrolled and provided support at all graduation ceremonies held at East Los Angeles College. This was to ensure the well-being of students, families, and attendees during these significant events.

Los Angeles Southwest College

In the month of June, Los Angeles Southwest College (LASC) proudly hosted six commencement ceremonies. The first two graduations were held for the high schools on the LASC campus: Middle College High School and Stella High Charter Academy. Three additional ceremonies took place for local schools in the area, including Teach Tech Charter High School, Middle School, and the New Designs Charter School. The final graduation celebrated LASC's own graduates for the year. Community College Bureau personnel were honored to provide security for each graduation and witnessed students we have become familiar with over the years, enter the next phase of their lives. Our deputies and security officers were even able to celebrate with LASC graduates on the dance floor at the graduation after party.

West Los Angeles College

June marked the end of another academic year, leading us to the Graduation/Commencement ceremony. This formal event celebrated the successful completion of academic programs. The administration, faculty, and graduating students at West Los Angeles College began their afternoon with a formal procession, followed by a welcoming speech from the College President Doctor James Limbaugh, and a keynote address that provided graduates with wisdom and inspiration. After the speeches, diplomas were awarded to over six hundred graduates, marking the culmination of years of hard work and the beginning of a new chapter in their lives. On behalf of all the deputies and security officers from Community College Bureau who contributed to a safe and smooth graduation event, we extend our best wishes to the Class of 2025 for a bright and successful future.
