

REQUEST FOR STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS (RFSQ) NO. 744-SH POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION SERVICES

ATTACHMENT 1 TO BULLETIN NUMBER 2 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question Number	Vendor's Question	Answer
1.	If approved under this RFSQ, would it be permissible to conduct polygraph examinations at my own office, or are all examinations required to be conducted exclusively at a Sheriff's Department facility?	Yes, at the County's discretion, it would be permissible to conduct polygraph examinations at Vendor's own office.
2.	For pre-employment examinations, will the LASD be requiring the use of the LEPET polygraph testing format, or will a different method be designated?	The County uses Relevant-Irrelevant, followed with Federal You Phase.
3.	Would examinations also be able to be conducted on weekends if needed?	Yes, at the County's discretion. Contractor must be available to provide services seven days a week, with the exception of County-recognized holidays.
4.	How many examinations per day does the Department typically require?	Contractor will not administer more than three polygraph examinations in one day.
5.	Does this RFSQ announcement pertain to contractors currently providing polygraph services for the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department?	Any interested Vendor, including any current Contractor under Master Agreement 696 for Polygraph Examination Services, will need to submit a Statement of Qualifications under RFSQ 744-SH.
6.	I currently have a contract with the county. Will an amendment be provided to sign for the increase and how soon will this amendment go into effect?	There will not be an amendment to Master Agreement 696 for Polygraph Examination Services.
